ADORATION OF THE HOLY EUCHARIST will be held after Mass on Tuesday Sept. 10th.

HARVEST FESTIVAL MEAL is Sunday, Sept. 15, serving from 4:30—6:30. Take time out to enjoy a scrumptious meal in the Church basement or you can get take outs at the school. And be sure to check out the Theme Baskets that will be there for you to bid on.

NOTICE—Linda is out of the office for a couple of weeks. Please send all information for the bulletin to Dana at Slayton.

ATTENTION CONFIRMATION STUDENTS: If you haven't already done so, sign up TODAY to help with the upcoming Harvest Festival. Your help is needed! (Boys specifically, we could use your muscle power to transport heavier roasters to and from the church to the school for take-out meals!) Also — don't forget your interviews/confessions with Fr. Schuster this week on Sept. 11 & Sept. 14. Text reminders will be sent!

CHILDREN'S CHURCH: A very special thank you to Sherri Boehnke & Suzi Zins for 24 years of dedication to our "little ones" during Children's Church on Sunday mornings. Their service to our young families has been invaluable, as they've broken open The Word to our little ones down in the church hall; providing young parents a few minutes of peace and quiet to reflect upon the Liturgy of the Word upstairs without distraction. For the time being, Sherri & Suzi will be stepping away from this important ministry. If you see them, please let them know how much they have been appreciated! THANK YOU SHERRI & SUZI!

RELEASE TIME: If you haven't yet registered for Release Time; please do so TODAY! Forms may be picked up at both the HS and elementary offices; in back of church, or downloaded from our parish website, under the St. Gabriel's Faith Formation link: triparishcfw.org Contact Peg if you have questions or want to register your student. Weekly Words from The Rock:

Did You Hear That?

Our gospel of today moves us into the realm of the senses. I am going to share some thoughts on the five senses this week. My weakest sense is my ability to smell. Let us be clear. If a skunk decided to spray me at a range of five feet, I would have absolutely no problem smelling. It isn't that I can't smell. My nose always seems to be full, so it is difficult for me to smell as well as others.

When it comes to the sense of touch, I have always been fortunate to have all my fingers. I'm reminded of someone like Philip Ignaszewski who grew up in my hometown and only had three fingers on one hand. Working at the lumber yard, he lost two of his fingers while cutting wood with a saw. Somehow, he adapted and continued his work at Freeborn Lumber.

My ability to see. I had cheater glasses for a few years prior to my need for prescription glasses. This was one decision in my life where I didn't try and "tough it out." Rather than being told I need prescription glasses, I made the decision on my own. The decision was made easier when I was having difficulty reading the prayers and texts for the Mass.

My ability to taste. I feel sorry for people who lose their sense of taste. The condition could be diabetes, bell's palsy, multiple sclerosis, Parkinson's, or someone who has suffered a stroke. I have always liked the taste of pizza, spaghetti, and chocolate. I am not a big fan of the taste of coconut.

My ability to hear. I have been fortunate that I still have relatively good hearing. It isn't perfect but decent. I've mentioned previously how my older sister grew up wearing hearing aids from a very young age. Hearing aids, while helpful, are not the perfect tool. That is why she prefers to be away from crowds and around people with whom she is comfortable. Such is the genius of Jesus in today's gospel. Moving into the district of the Decapolis, people brought to Jesus a deaf man who had a speech impediment. Did you ever notice how important our hearing is to our ability to speak? If I can't hear what I am saying, how am I to know how I sound or words sound? Looking at a detail from my sister's story, Jesus, knowing how difficult crowds are to someone who has a difficult time hearing, takes the deaf man away from the crowd. Touching the man's ears and tongue, he utters "Ephphatha!" (meaning "be opened") and both senses are brought into alignment. His ears are opened, his speech impediment removed. The consequence? He spoke plainly.

While I have been blessed with the ability to hear and speak, I must remember what I allow myself to hear is what enters my mind and what I speak is what comes from my heart. Both must be attuned with one thing – Jesus Christ. I am not perfect, yet I strive to be more aligned with Jesus each and every day.

Blessings to you!

Father Peter Schuster
