WEEKLY WORDS FROM THE ROCK:

John Micheal Talbot, on pages 160-161 in his book Nothing is Impossible with God, shares the following story.

How many of you saw the movie Saving Private Ryan? I found it quite moving. In the movie an army sergeant goes to pull Private Ryan out of combat because his brothers have just died in action, and the higher-ups in the U.S. Department of War will not leave a lone sibling in combat. The Tom Hanks character, the commanding officer, doesn't want to go and get Ryan. All he wants is to go home to his wife and family and get on with his civilian life. But he obeys orders, and he goes. They find Ryan, and he doesn't want to leave his platoon, for he is a patriot. In the battle that ensues, the Tom Hanks character is shot on a bridge. Ryan sees him, runs out onto the bridge, and sees the commander dying. The commander knows he is dying, so he reaches up, grabs Ryan by the collar, and says with his final breath, "Earn it. Go and live a good life."

The scene fades to an aged Ryan kneeling before the commander's grave in France. He is weeping profusely. His wife, who is there with his family, approaches him and says, "What's is the matter, dear?" He looks up through tears and manages to choke out, "Just tell me I've lived a good life." She assures him that he has, and points back to his children and grandchildren, who have made the trip with him. He is profoundly aware of what it means for one to lay down his life so that he could live. Most military people who have been through something similar, or even knows what it is to lose a brother or sister in arms, understand this intimately, and are often reduced to tears when I tell this story at missions.

That's what Jesus did for us on Calvary, and what he does sacramentally at every Mass. That's how much Jesus loves us. It is personal. And it is real. At every Mass Jesus is personally and fully present and gives his life as a sacrifice for us.

And here's the kicker: Jesus would have done all of this for each of us even if we were the only person ever to fully follow him. He would have come to earth, ministered everything in the Gospels, died on a cross, risen from the dead, ascended into heaven, and given the Holy Spirit. And he did it for each of us personally. He knows us from the beginnings of eternity, and planned this "great rescue" because he loves us.

Do you ever feel a tad unloved? Yes, I do too. But let's not dare say that we are not loved, or loved personally and intimately. That would cheapen the sacrifice of Jesus for us, and would reduce the Mass to utter nonsense. But it is not nonsense. We are loved!

Holy Humor

Here are two stories for you:

Story 1 – A woman invited some people to dinner. At the table, she turned to her six-year-old daughter and said, "Would you like to say the blessing?" "I wouldn't know what to say," the little girl replied. "Just say what you hear Mommy say," the mother said. The little girl bowed her head and said: "Dear Lord, why on earth did I invite all these people to dinner?"

Story 2 – A pastor was speaking to a group of second graders about the resurrection of Jesus when one student asked, "What did Jesus say right after He came out of the grave?" The pastor explained that the Gospels do not tell us what He said. The hand of one little girl shot up. "I know what He said: He said, 'Tah-dah!'"

Peace be to you!

~Father Peter Schuster

Looking For a Web Page Developer ... Are you technologically gifted? We are looking for someone with the skills to develop a web page for our parish cluster including the parishes of St. Ann/St. Gabriel/IHM & St. Anthony. It has been a number of years since any work has been done to update these websites. Your help would be greatly appreciated. If this is something you think you'd be able to volunteer for, please contact your parish administrator.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR OUR YOUTH! Children and teens are the future of our Church ... and teaching them the deep truths of Catholicism will guide and direct their lives into eternity! Our “Greater Catholic Church” offers so many opportunities for young people to witness the fullness of this truth – The following are a few items that, if you're a parent of a teen or middle school youth, you should GET ON YOUR CALENDAR TODAY and encourage your child(ren) to participate! You can learn how to involve your child(ren) in any of these excellent opportunities by visiting with your parish Faith Formation director.

TEC (Together Encountering Christ): Feb. 15-17 – Luverne, MN. This is a fantastic weekend for anyone (adults also), age 16 and older. For more information, contact your Faith Formation Director. TEC weekends are indeed transformative!

High School Youth Retreat (Living Our Faith in Love): Mar. 16 (1-7 p.m.), Jackson, MN This year, we will have a nationally-known youth speaker on hand to talk with the youth; along with Mass, top-notch music and times for prayer/outreach.

Along with rock-solid teaching on the Catholic faith, the elementary children experience daily Mass, Adoration, confessions, games, water fights and so much more! The HS evening sessions are more open, and an opportunity for your teen to ask questions and learn more about the faith from young adults who are strong in their knowledge and faith.

Mission Trip: June 15-21. It's not too late to sign up! The group will be going to St. Michael's, AZ in the Diocese of Gallup to serve. This is an amazing opportunity for your youth to get a hands-on working experience in outreach; along with times for prayer/worship and reflection.
